

Why do they like La Vie Nouvelle ?

Since 1947, LVN membership is, an opportunity and a chance for thousand of present and former members.

We discovered in La Vie Nouvelle how others can be an asset, and how much it was helpful to me, facing complex or difficult questions, to listen to the opinions of others even if we do not agree.

Daniel, member for 5 years

LVN offers trainings (techniques of animation, group management), confidential personal exchanges without taboo, but it is also field trips in European countries, everybody can get something out of it.

Gérard, member for 24 years

What I like at LVN: at first, it's a true freedom and open-mindedness. The will not to stick to the words, a place which allows one to step back from one's everyday life, with its share of worries or preoccupations, urgent or not. It also enables one to remain in the reality of the life in all its aspects, to find one's own place in it and to truly commit oneself.

Samuel, member for 8 years

The group gathers as a whole or in small units for convivial moments (meals, biking trips...) but also to take actions together (ex: project to help a student; project to support the creation of a fair trade store, project of community holidays or discussions around a book...). Every single group has its own personality but all of them refer to common values among which: listen to and respect everybody else.

La Vie Nouvelle

The New Life

Give the wish and the means to transform yourself
and to act
for the transformation of the world

la vie nouvelle
pour une alternative personnaliste et citoyenne

How ?

La Vie Nouvelle offers an original operating model combining:

- 👥 Small teams of 7 or 8 persons who meet regularly to share expériences, reflexions, doubts and convictions on a chosen theme;
- 🗨️ Opened transverse workshops, to go further into particular theme;
- 👁️ week-ends and national training.

In the exchanges everybody's learning from the others, with the aim to reach

- 👂 a real listening, without any priori, without any judgement
- 🗨️ a free, sincere and personal word

Who's concerned ?

The Movement is open to everyone.

La Vie Nouvelle is an independant movment, pluralistic, free of any politic organisation, labor union or church

On what topics ?

Members of La Vie Nouvelle are concerned by all aspects of life (work, relations, family, ways of consumption, health, culture, politics, spirituality). This global approach of the person allows to base on a personal transformation the commitments and the responsibilities of each in the society.

La Vie Nouvelle is a non gouvernemental organisation. There are 40 local groups in cities in France, Belgium and Luxembourg.

Reflexion and commitments for LVN are based on 3 axes: philosophy of the person, spirituality, politics.

They are inseparable to report the global nature of the person.

The charter of LVN defines references and goals of our actions.

Training is the heart of LVN's actions and is turned toward the understanding of the current world, facing up one's responsibility and personal development. Public meetings (to debate and share) are organised with our partners : meetings with a defined theme, field trips, symposiums... A magazine, Citoyens (Citizens), a website and occasional publications are materials to transcribe debates and diffuse informations on the movment. All of them recount our collective positions, the works from our groups or sectors as well as our partnerships.

Every member participates in the funding of the movement according to his incomes.
